

The Causes of the First World War

As in governance of nations, the guiding principle is the National Interest. The nations are placed by historical complusions, in regions, and the populations are not always homogenous. Neighbouring nations, have difference in ethnic origins.