For a source of inforamtion which these days the conrolled media of today will not give and no clear opinions too are fuzzed, the only way you can know is from listening and getting what the opposition wants to tell you. You Tube a foreign companuy gves it to you. If euphoria of capitalist dreams are peddled the people are confused. In reality their day to day experiences are of high prices, lower bank interets, a fact. What is the motive behind all this? So to safeguard the interests of your children and grandchildren which are at stake. Do you want the grand children want to blame their grand parents? Look at the home less in Capitalist America?
