

On Loving God

Written by W.J.Pais

By: Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153)

On Loving God is one of the best-known and most influential works of Medieval Christian mysticism. Written at the request of one of the cardinals of Rome, it describes the four “levels” of love for God, and puts Christian devotion in the context of God’s love for mankind.

Listen to the audio book